UNCONTESTED DIVORCES / DISSOLUTIONS:

Florida law requires both parties to disclose their finances to each other when seeking a divorce/dissolution. This is done by their filing a financial affidavit stating their employer and income info. As well as their debts and assets information already covered earlier in this worksheet. If both parties are not willing to do this up front, there will be an extra $100.00 charge when we have to go into the case a second time to complete some of the documents required except possibly in case types 1 and 2 shown here as the second party may just default by not answering anything and the Court can go ahead and grant the dissolution with out the financial info. like a missing spouse.*

1. With No Children, No Property: $299.00
(Both parties just want to get a fresh start with no debts or assets to divide and no children common to the parties)

2. With No Children, No Property & Spouse is Missing - Whereabouts Unknown: $399.00
(Petitioner just wants to get a fresh start with no debts or assets to divide and no children common to the parties)

3. With Property, but, No Children: $399.00
(Parties may have some assets or debts acquired during the marriage that they need to divide out in the Divorce)

4. With Children: $599.00
(Parties have children born of the marriage whether common to parties or not. Both parties must furnish all financial information including their current pay stubs or payroll figures so guideline child support can be calculated for the parties at the beginning of the process - otherwise preparation cost is $599.00.)

CONTESTED DIVORCES / DISSOLUTIONS:

1. With No Children, No Property: $299.00
(Both parties just want to get a fresh start with no debts or assets to divide and no children common to the parties or at least one party wants a Fresh Start and the other doesn't want the Divorce for some reason)

2. With Property, but, No Children: $399.00
(Parties may have some assets or debts acquired during the marriage that they need to divide out in the Divorce and parties can't agree on some property or debt issues. Judgment will be typed as petitioner asks.)

3. With Children: $599.00
(Parties have children born of the marriage whether common to parties or not and parties can't agree on some of the issues relating to children or property division. You'll probably have the other party served in this situation. Then, they'll will furnish their answer and financial info. which you'll then send to us to complete your package.)

MODIFICATIONS OF AN EARLIER DIVORCE OR DISSOLUTION JUDGMENT:

1. Modifications of Prior Judgments: $399.00 & up.
(Most common are changes to child custody, visitation or support but could be something else like alimony) (We must have: a copy of your original judgment and a copy of any judgments subsequently entered in the case as well as the current name, address (and phone # - if available) for each of the parties. Additionally, you should write us a note explaining what you want to modify. We'll contact you upon receiving your request to collect any additional information and to clarify any questions.)

2. Answers to Petitions for Divorce or other Family Law issues: $299.00 & up
(Call for a quote on your Particular Situation. 904 - 264 - 4005) (If you want an Answer & Counterpetition $399.)

PATERNITY ACTIONS, Parties were never married to each other and have a child out of wedlock:
